

CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP PACKAGES

For over 45 years the Australian Institute of Project Management has been Australia's peak body for project management. The Institute engages with organisations to support the development of project leaders in successfully executing projects and delivering to strategic objectives.

EXCELLENCE IN PROJECT LEADERSHIP

The Australian Institute of Project Management drives the professional development of project leaders. It does this not only through training and certification, but also through networking events and awards to recognise project excellence.

THE BENEFITS OF CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP

Organisations are lifting the bar on delivering projects on time and on budget, particularly in competitive and fast-moving markets where achievement needs to happen more, faster, and for less. This has elevated the role of project managers and increased their importance in strategy setting and the execution of organisational objectives.
